

OUR BULK HERBS

Below is a comprehensive list of herbs that we grow and wildharvest. Feel free to contact us to pre-order, to discuss planned or contract growing, or to inquire about fresh herbs availability during the growing season. If our own farm-grown herbs are sold out, we may have organic or wildcrafted herbs from other local farms available in their place.

Preorders for next season are accepted through March 2019. Availability is subject to change.

Herbs marked red are sold out, though so may become available again by the end of our growing season in mid-October.
